THREATS FROM THE PRESS OF ENGLAND

the State Brings to a Climax a Long | Sherman's Utterances Taken as a Text for Many Editorials.

SECRETARY DECLARED SENILE

Great Britain May Call Upon Washington To Back Up Its Bluff."

THE OHIO MAN IS SEVERELY CRITICISED

British Papers Quote an Interview and Intimate That the English Are Ready for War.

London, August 9.-Commenting on the interview of The New York World with Secretary Sherman, The St. James Gazette this afternoon says:

"Secretary Sherman's utterances afford no material for denial by his friends of the statement that he is suffering from senile decay. But, after all, Mr. Sherman represents America, and we are certain all international courtesies will be observed." Continuing, The Gazette refers to the Kalnoky incident, when it says:

"Austria properly severed diplomatic relations with Great Britain until Mr. Gladstone apologized for his attack upon dual monarchy," and asks why there is one law in Europe and another in America.

In conclusion, The Gazette repeats its recent warning that this is a dangerous line of policy to follow and that some day Great Britain may call upon Washington to "back up its bluff." The Westminster Gazette, referring to the same matter, remarks this afternoon that the "interview is a fruity example of Sherman's salon style." The Globe on this subject says today:

"Secretary Sherman has better rid himself of the idea that Uncle Sam is going to boss the show, either on the gold fields or in the fisheries. We are not ready to follow every quarrel with blows, but when we strike we strike hard and the idea of our being afraid of a third-rate naval pow-er like the United States could only have occurred to a lunatic or to Mr. Sherman. Judging from his latest performances, we may charitably assume that the rumors that Mr. Sherman is suffering from mental disturbances are correct."

The utterances attributed to Secretary Sherman upon which the comment of the London paper is based are as follows: "England is a great country, but it is not always safe to assume that she is ready to follow up every quarrel with blows. She quarrels oftener than she fights. It would be exceedingly difficult for her to fight us all alone about our seal catching. Russia and Japan are in a simi-lat position, and any quarrel between the United States and England on this score would in all probability involve those other Board Must Secure Armor for the Three Battleships Now Under Construction.

Washington, August 9.-The special naval oard appointed by Acting Secretary Roose-relt for the purpose of preparing for the information of congress estimates of the cost of establishing and operating a government plant for the manufacture of rmor plate met at the navy department

All the members were present. Before proceeding with the work of organization the members of the board called upon Acting Secretary Roosevelt and had a long talk with him respecting the undertaking

The acting secretary expressed his views as to the intention of congress, and the oard was ready for work after a room ad been secured.

The plan is to make a thorough inves-tigation of the question presented in all its aspects, not only with a view to the ascertainment of the cost of building a great government factory, but after that as been accomplished, propositions are invited for the sale of a complete plant to the government. While this last information was not specifically decided to be furnished to congress in the law, it is deemed desirable to supply it, in order to rmit of a consideration of the economic advantages of each plan. So far there has been no lack of suggestions to the navy department from the people who would like to locate the plant They have come, according to Acting Secretary Roosevelt, from Marion, Ind., Birmingham, Ala., Pennsylvania, Maryland Jersey came from a woman.

MRS. A. N. ARCHER INJURED. She Was Thrown from Her Buggy Yes-

Mrs. A. N. Archer, proprietress of the Hotel Grant, was thrown from her buggy while out driving yesterday afternoon and seriously injured. It was just after din-ner that Mrs. Archer ordered her buggy and started out for a drive to Fort Mc-Pherson. She made the drive out successfully, but on the way home the animal, which had been a little frisky during the whole of the drive, became frightened at sight of train and shied. The wrench was so violent that Mrs. Archer was thrown from buggy and lay stunned on the She was picked up in a few moments and the Grady hospital ambulance telephoned for.

It arrived shortly and the injured lady was taken to her home, where an examination proved that her right lower limb had been broken. She also complained of internal pains, and it may be she is otherwise injured. Physicians were with her until late last night and everything possible was done for her.

and his wife purchased a farm near this place and told their neighbors that they had come from Pennsylvania in search of health. Maxwell operated his farm with profit, and some months ago set up a shoe store in this village.

He got along very well with the people at first, but two weeks ago he was caught one night looking through the window of a house occupied by a widow and her two daughters. Previous to this time there had been evidence that some man was making a practice of looking into the windows of private houses late at night, and the fact that a "peeping Tom" was abroad became a matter of general talk. When Maxwell was captured it speedily became apparent that he was the man wanted, for a number of women positively identified him as having been seen about their houses under suspicious circumstances late at night.

Maxwell was taken before a gathering of citizens and was told that he would be given ten days in which to leave the town and the county. He protested his innocence. and said that it was his intention to stay in Bowman as long as he saw fit. When the ten days' limit expired Maxwell was still conducting both his farm and his shoe store, and had shown no inclination to leave the place. Last Saturday at noon thirty men went to his place of business, took him out into the street, tore off all his clothes and tied him to a tree in one of the public thoroughfares. Then ten of the number, armed with pieces of leather harness, laid ten lashes each upon his bare back. The punishment was fearful, and Maxwell fainted from pain and loss of blood long before it was over. When the mob left him his wife carried him back into his store, brought him back to consciousness and dressed him. Immediately afterwards the mob returned and took possession of Maxwell and his wife, carried them to the railroad station, purchased tickets for them to Toccoa, plac ed them on the train and told them that if they ever returned to Bowman they would be killed. Maxwell has left considerable property here, and there is a good deal of speculation as to whether or not he will return to

The conference began at 4 o'clock and lasted until 7, when a recess for an hour was taken and the visitors were entertained at lunch by the bishop. After lunch the conference was resumed. The matter which will come before the bishop em-braces the whole plan of consolidation. Maurice E. F. Wilhere, speaking for the American branch, and Edward R. Hayes for the board of Erin, bot's stated before would depend upon the bishop's decision. Two of the principal matters to be decided will be as to the officering of the consoli-dated organizations and the matter of eligibility of membership. In the American branch those who are of Irish descen from either parentage may become mem-bers, while in the board of Erin branch, persons may become members only when both parents are Irish.

The conference ended at 10 o'clock. Time for the submission of papers will be allowed before a decision is given. None of the parties would say aught but that the meeting was entirely harmonious.

> and was ready to go ahead with the hearing of evidence this morning. Judge N. L. Hutchins is presiding over the trial and Solicitor Charles H. Brand represents the state. Bud Brooks is represented by Attorney Ed T. Brown, of Athens. Grady Reynolds had no counsel and Judge Hutchins appointed to represent him Judge W. I. Pike, of Jefferson, and Georga

C. Thomas, of Athens, two of the ablest attorneys in the circuit On account of Brooks's weakened physical condition his attorney, Colonel Edward T. Brown, moved yesterday morning that three reputable physicians be appointed to examine him and report back as to whether he was physically able to go into the trial. Mr. Brown was of the opinion that his client was unable to stand the physical strain necessary to a trial and he wanted the matter determined by investigation. Judge Hutchins appointed Drs. S. J. Smith and J. B. Pendergrass, of Jefferson, to make the examination. This board repaired at once to the jail and made an examination of Brooks. They found him very much broken up in his nerves, very unsteady and very weak. Was Well Enough for Trial. They returned with the report that while ne was suffering from indigestion and nervousness, he was not too ill to go into a trial. They had examined him thoroughly and thought him fully able to stand the physical strain of a trial. At 2 o'clock, after the dinner recess, Grady Reynolds and Bud Brooks were brought into court. Reynolds was calm, self-controlled and defiant and not a nerve shook as he entered and met the gaze of the large crowd. Brooks was pale, weak and trembling and looked the perfect plcture of detection and despair. The two men presented a striking con trast in appearance. Reynolds has a visage, hard as wrought iron, with not the trace of a nerve or sensitive feeling about it. His hair is black, thick, bushy and coarse as a horse brush. It is a heavy black mat and falls in a thick bang up his low forehead. His features are hard and clear cut. He wears a coarse black beard, cut rather short and his black eyes shine with bravado.

Brooks Totters in Court. Brooks, on the other hand, is of lighter and weaker type. His eyes are pale and mirrored in them is weakness of soul and will. His features, while rather brutal, are far more sensitive than those of Reynolds, who it appears was the master spirit in the crime for which they are held. Brooks was for a considerable time in the employ of

Reynolds and doubtless under his power. When Brooks was led into the courtre he staggered with weakness and had to be assisted to a seat. He was given a toddy, which apparently revived him but little He seemed to be broken with nervous fear. The cases were severed at once and Brooks was put on trial. The defense entered a plea of not guilty. Then the tedious work of getting a jury was begun. At the hour of adjournment this had been com-

Hunt was found dead in the bottom of the river, with a heavy weight tied to him. Shortly after he disappeared Reynolds and Brooks took charge of his store, claiming to have bought the stock. The suspicion of the people was aroused and an investigation was instituted. As a result of this Hunt's body was found and Brooks and Reynolds were arrested.

Great interest is felt all over the state in the result of the trial. The dead man's brothers, Colonel C. J. Hunt and Dr. Hunt, are present and will aid in the prosecution. All kinds of rumors have been afloat about a great crowd coming over from South Carolina and taking the law into their own hands if the court did not do to suit them. The truth is there are only nine men from South Carolina, including the brothers of the murdered man, and they all seem to be quiet, orderly gentle-

Crisis Is Probable in the Plum Creek District Today-Dolan Will Defy Injunction.

Pittsburg, August 9 .- Appeals for food and provisions were numerous at the headquarters of the miners' officials in this city today. It appeared as if there was a wail from every section of the district and miners in person were present to ask that the suffering ones be looked after. Secretary Warner was kept busy answering the He said tonight that he had sent more than $1,000 worth of groceries and provisions into various parts of the district. The appeals are now coming in from the familles, the heads of which are at the various rining camps using their influence to keep other men from working.

A series of meetings are to be held all over the district. It is expected to keep up the interest in every section and strength en every point where there is the least indication of weakness.

President Dolan issued a call today for a mass meeting of all the miners at Canonsburg, Wednesday morning.

It is expected that Eugene Debs, Mrs. Jones, Patrick Dolan, M. P. Carrick and others will make addresses.

Thomas B, DeArmitt, superintendent of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company, worked hard today to get the miners at Oak Hill to return to work. By a house-to-house canvass he succeeded in getting a few diggers more than have been at work. Thirty-seven miners went in. The men were told by Mr. DeArmitt that they would lose all they had earned if they did not go to work and be given five days to vacate the company houses. The Plum Creek men were not paid to day and it is expected the company wil uire the men to sign a new agreement fore they are given their envelopes. The Sandy Creek miners are awaiting developments. They are hopeful the courts will set aside the contracts of the company which the men were obliged to sign. Dolan Will Defy the Injunction. President Dolan will go to the Canons-burg region and defy the injunctions by speaking at a meeting scheduled for August 11th. It is said only thirteen gondolas were loaded at Plum Creek today. Montgomery, Ala., August 9 .- (Special.)-It is already evident that the supreme court judgeships will be very live issues in the campaign next year. The entire court, consisting of a chief justice and four associate justices, is to be elected. The bench, as it is now constituted, is a strong one and is popular with the people, but three or four lawyers of the state, who are exceedingly popular on account of their abilities and worthiness. the being groomed and one or two of them are considered to have very excellent hances to win.

It was stated some weeks ago that Chief fustice Brickell would not be a candidate for re-election. Some of the Tennessee valley papers have demurred to the statemen, and as the chief justice has not admitted nor denied the proposition, the public is in doubt All of the other justices will stand for re-election: The most prominent and eligible person whose names have been suggested in connection with the supreme bench are Hons, Henry A. Sharp, judge of the city court of Jefferson county; John R. Tyson, of this city, judge of the Montgomery circuit court, and J. R. Dowdell, of Opelika, chairman of the southeastern chancery di-They are all exceptionally oble

Mossie Wilson, of Clark, who is known to almost everybody in Alabama known to almost everybody in Alabama as the clerk of the house of representatives for several sessions past, will be a candidate for the democratic nomination for attorney general, it is stated. Mr. Wilson is very popular and the race between him and Mr. William Boykin, of will likely prove very spirited. Mr. Boykin is at present a member of the state senate, and during his several terms as a legislator has made many friends and established many a strong political

ALABAMA TOWNS QUARANTINE.

Authorities Are Ordering Compulsory Vaccination at Once.

Gadsden, Ala., Aug. 9.—(Special)—Alabama City has declared a rigid quarantine against Birmingham and Montgomery and the other Alabama towns infested with smallpox. The authorities have ordered compulsory vaccination.

Gadsden has adopted the same law as to accination, and Attalla will probably do likewise tomorrow.

The authorities of the three towns will likely establish a pesthouse on Lookout nountain if the disease appears in either

VACCINATES ONE A MINUTE Selma City Physician Works To Prevent Spread of Smallpox.

Selma, Ala., August 9.—(Special.)—The smallpox scare is well on in Selma, and hundreds are being vaccinated daily.

The sidewalks in front of the city physician's office are constantly crowded, and be has had to call for assistance. He broke the record today, vaccinating fifty-five per-sons in sixty minutes. Every precaution possible is being taken to keep the disease from being brough into the city.

Denies the Report.

Montgomery, Ala., August 9.-(Special.)-A Florence special states that Rev. L. Edmondson, pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal church at West Point, Tenn., denfes the report wired out by enterprising newspaper correspondents that he was shot and hanged for harboring Anthony Willams, the criminal in the recent West Point tragedy. He is still alive and insists that he was never even suspected of having harbored a criminal. L. Edmondson, pastor of the African Meth Lady Manager in Selma.

Selma, Ala., August 9.—(Special.)—Miss Ethel B. Pierce reached the city today from Tuscaloosa and took charge of the Postal Telegraph Company's office. She has been in the employment of the company for several years as operator and for two years as manager of the Tuscaloosa office.

Pistol Thought To Be Unloaded. Gadsden, Ala., August 2.—(Special.)—The sixteen-year-old son of Pressly Norred killed his three-year-old brother with a pistol which was thought to be unloaded at Taylors mill in Talladega county. The pistol was given the children as a plaything.

Sayre Grants Rehearing. Montgomery, Ala., August 9 .- (Special.)-Judge Sayre, of the city court, has conof the application for a habeas corpus trial of Stokes and the other negroes charged with the recent church murder and has set the hearing for next Saturday.

Willis Crushed to Death. Gadsden, Ala., August 2.—(Special.)—Tom Willis fed from a wagon load of shingles on the plantation of J. W. Peacock, in Talladega county, and was crushed to death by several bundles of shingles falling on him.

But This Did Not Go and Now He Must Seek Other Fields.

MANY OTHER POLICE MATTERS ARRANGED

Last Night's Was a Busy Session of Board and Several Important Questions Came Up.

Officer S. V. Belcher, of the blcycle corps, was discharged from the force by the board of commissioners for being in an intoxicated condition when he reported for duty. On Saturday Belcher was ordered out of line by Captain Abbott and was sent to Captain Manly's office for examination. He was suspended, awaiting the action of the commissioners.

The commissioners suspended the trial

Officer Belcher was asked for a stateeut, and his plea in the case. been sick for several days," said the bicy-cle officer. "On Saturday I was feeling terribly bad and took three drinks from 9 o'clock in the morning up to the time of go-ing on duty. It was taken only for medical purposes and not with the intention of getting dfunk." Captain Abbott stated that he noticed Belcher was standing in an unsoldierly way when the men were in ranks preparatory to going on duty, "I told the sergeant to notice the man carefully, that I had seen semething wrong. He looked up and down the line again and reported there was nothirg wrong

"I ordered the bicycle corps to step to the rear. I noticed Beicher particularly and he staggered as he turned. When the men were ordered out I sent him upstairs to Chief Manly's office for examination. He acknowledged that he had been drinking, but said that it was for medical purposes.' In executive session the matter was discussed. Mr. Belcher was a good officer and this was his first offerse. L. Albert, Commissioner Branan proposed that a page in the minutes of the records of the department be left blank with Offieer Albert's name inscribed. The suggestion will be carried out. Vice Chairman Patterson introduced a resolution to have several of the prominent alleys in the city, which had been the renezvous of thieves and the places of crime, lighted by electric lights. The alleys named were: Back of the Imperial theater; one unning from Mitchell to Trinity avenue parallel with Whilehall street; one running from the railroad to Forsyth and Broad streets; alley running from Pryor street to Loyd, known as Kenney's alley; ning from Whitehall to Central railroad, mown as Duval's alley.

Major Kendrick introduced a resolution o have all of the officers of the police deeartment placed in their respective ranks; that the captains be ranked as senior and junior, and that at all times the senior captain be in command. That his order be passed on through to the Heretofore it has been in the power of Chief Connolly to place any sergeant he saw fit in place of a captain that was laid off duty through any cause. Under this resolution the ranking screents will be laced in charge.

This resolution caused no end of argument among the commissioners. Chairman ment among the commissioners. Chairman Branan opposed it. He said that the chief of police was better acquainted with the ability of his men, and knew better who to place in charge in an emergency. Major Kendrick said that in all of the police departments of any size, all of the officers had rank, and that who was in charge was known by everyhold under. harge was known by everybody, under his system. The by order of Chairman English, of action of the chairman was approved by the board, but the chief of police was instructed that as soon as he saw proper the patrolmen might be given their week's vacation in the order in which they come. Officer M. N. Newburn was given half salary for the forty-six days that he was sick in bed suffering with injuries received from being thrown out of the patrol wagon.
Officer J. N. Hollis, who was run over while trying to stop a runaway horse on Whitehall street, and laid up for a week, was given his full salary for the time he was sick. Commissioner Patterson stated that in stopping the runaway horse Officer Hollis had done a brave deed and should commended for it. The board was unanimous in giving him full time for the days he was sick.

John C. Raspberry, one of the supernumeraries, sent in his resignation to the board, which was accepted.

In the place of Officer Belcher, who was discharged, J. D. Hewell was put on the regular supernumerary list. In place of Regular Officer Albert, who was killed, Mr. G. P. Estes was given a position. He was the first man on the regular supernumerary list.

To fill the vacancies that were made vacant by the death of Albert, the discharge of Belcher and the resignation of Raspberry, the following officers were elected: A. C. Kerlin, W. W. Mitchell, K. S. Foster.

Dr. W. A. When asked about the prospects of Emory for the next session he replied: "The outlook for a large attendance was never so good in the history of the college. The clast seven years have been years of increasing prosperity and the success of the institution makes this new building absolutely necessary. The collection of books has more than doubled in the number of volumes and quadrupled in value. The present rooms used for library purposes are inadequate, and, besides, they are needed to meet the wants of the increased faculty and the growth in patronage. We thus kill two birds with one stone. We provide for the library and for additional lecture rooms by this structure.

"With the improved equipment and enhanced opportunities at Emory, patronage is hardly a question with us now. Board and other expenses at Emory being low, is hardly a question with us now. Face, Hands and Arms Covered With Scrofulous Humors - How a Cure Was Effected.

"When five years old my little boy had scrofula on his face, hands and arms. It was worst on his chin, although the sores on his cheeks and hands were very bad. It appeared in the form of red pimples which would fester, break open and run and then scab over. After disappearing they would break out again. They caused intense itching and the little sufferer had to be watched continually to keep him from scratching the sores. We became greatly alarmed at his condition. My wife's mother had had scrofula and the only medicine which had helpd her was Hood's Sarsaparilla. We decided to give it to our boy and we noted an improvement in his case very soon. After giving him four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla the humor had all been driven out of his blood and it has never since returned." WILLIAM BARTZ, 416 South Williams St., South Bend, Indiana. the prime minister of Spain, Senor Canovas del Castillo, was undoubtedly cold-bloodedly premeditated. Golli deliberately watched for an opportunity to kill the Spanish statesman, and he only fired when he had no chance of missing. The prime minister lingered for some time in agony, and passed away with a cry of "Long live Spain." Further details of the assassination show that Senor Canovas and his wife were present yesterday morning at the celebration of mass at the chapel attached to the baths. After mass the premier was reading and conversing with some reporters when the assassin appeared and fired three shots at him with a revolver, hitting him in the forehead, chest and left ear. The wounded man fell to the ground crying: "Assassin!

Long live Spain!" The premier was carried to his room and expired at 1:30 o'clock p. m., after extreme unction had been administered to him by a priest of the dominican order.

The murderer, who was immediately seized by those who were in the vicinity of the crime, was severely handled, and might have been killed had it not been for the protection afforded him by a number of civil guards who soon ran to the scene of the assassination.

Senora Canovas, wife of the premier, but a short distance away when the crime was committed, rushed to her husband's side upon hearing the shots. As the premier lay dying on the ground she bitterly feproached the murderer for his crime. Golli, in reply to the agonizing words of the distracted wife, said: "I respect you because you are an honorable lady, but I have done my duty and now easy in mind, for I have avenged my friends and brothers in Mount Juich." Golli has confessed that he killed Senor Canovas to avenge the Barcelena anarchists and the insurgent leader, Don Jose Rizal, as the instigator of the Philippine rebellion. Dr. Rizal denied that he was a rebel leader, but he admitted that he had drawn up the statutes of the Philippine

In appearance Golli is of medium height, wears a full beard and spectacles, and his demeanor is that of a quiet, law-abiding citizen. He says he is satisfied with having done "his duty" and asserts that he had no personal grudge against the premier and was merely obeying orders received from his superiors in the secret society to which he belonged.

He frankly professes anarchist doctrines, says he was sentenced in 1895 to eighteen imprisonment in the fail at Lucera, Italy, and claims that he escaped from there to Marseilles, from which point he made his way to Barcelona.

Talk with Senor Sagasta. In the course of an interview this afternoon, Senor Sagasta, the liberal leader,

"The country's politics must not depend upon an assassin. The conservatives ought to remain in power under the guidance of men like Marshal Campos, Senor Pidal and Senor El Duncan. Nevertheless, if the queen regent appeals to the liberals they are ready to respond."

The funeral of Senor Canovas will probably take place on Thursday. Meanwhile, the remains will lie here in state. The Spanish newspapers without regard to difference of political opinion, expressed their horror and indignation at the crime, and their satisfaction, that, the assessing and their satisfaction that the assassi is not a Spaniard. It is probable that the law for the re-pression of anarchism, which has hitherto been enforced only in Barcelona and Mad-rid, will be extended to the whole coun-

the effect of the loss of Canovas upon the conservative party. General Azcarraga has acquired great popularity and prestige through his skill in organizing the country's resources for the Cuban and Philippine campaigns and he may be able to keep the Pally together, but rearny good judges take party together, but many good judges take a gloomy view of the situation and lament the absence of civil statesmen of the caliber

A special dispatch from San Sebastian says that Golli saluted Senor Canovas each morning with great politeness.

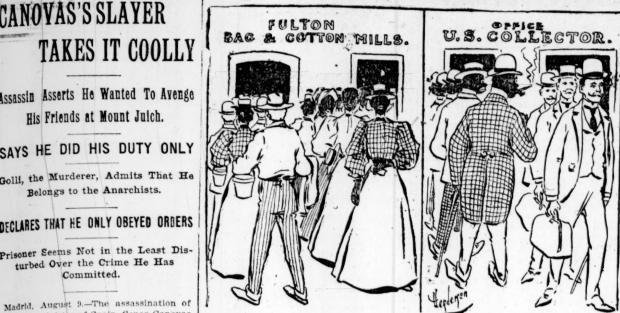

His effusiveness aroused the suspicions of the premier, who mentioned the matter to the proprietor of the baths only to be reassured by him. Golli confesses that he followed Senor Canovas to church and to other places, waiting for an opportunity when he could surely accomplish his purpose.

COMMENT ON THE PREMIER'S PASSING

Speculation Is Rife in Washington as The Atlanta Colony Express Great Joy at to the Results.

EXCITEMENT WAS INTENSE THINK IT A BLESSING FOR CUBA

Assassination Will Affect Spain Both at Home and Abroad.

HE WAS THE BACKBONE OF PRESENT POLICY

That Cuba Will Be Benefited by Assassin's Work Is Now Generally Believed.

Washington, August 9.-(Special.)-Not ince the advent of the present administration has anything occurred to create such profound excitement in political and diplomatic circles as has the assassination of the Spanish premier. As yesterday was Sunday, the news of the affair did not reach the public until today; and for the ame reason no information concerning the affair could reach the government until Secretary Sherman opened his dispatches this morning. But today the events in Spain have formed the one topic of talk

To designate the excitement as profound is to state the situation properly. At the department of state there were none of the externals which would indicate asflurry of any sort, and, indeed, there was nothing of that kind; but everybody in authority was speculating as to the political results of the tragedy. What effect will it have on the Cuban question? is asked on every this line, for the removal of Canovas will have, in the end, a decided effect upon external as well as internal affairs of Spain. Here in Washington the premier has been regarded as the backbone of the Spanish policy with regard to Cuba. While it is probably true that whoever is chosen to succeed the dead man will inaugurate no new policy at present, it is believed that in the end the sentiment against continuing e expensive Cuban experiment will pre vail. That there has been in Spain a deep discontent with the government's policy for a long time is apparent; and there is no loubt that this feeling has grown rapidly. though its advocates have felt there was no chance for a change so long as Canovas held the whip hand. His power has been

While his successor may not inaugurate a different policy in the very near future, such a change is bound to come

It is true that the Cuban difficulty in no way figured in the causes that led to the assassination-and all friends of Cuba are devoutly glad that it did not-but that the esult will affect Cuba's cause there can be no doubt. Spain cannot maintain the war in Cuba much longer. The assassinaanarchistic plot, brings home to the Spanish people the fact that they have troubles enough at home—that it is folly to en-deavor longer to maintain Weyler's army in Cuba when there is no chance of success here, and when it is so badly needed at

Senator Morgan's prediction that the end of the rainy season will see the Spanish evacuation of Cuba finds many believers here. The prevailing sentiment is that, in self defense, the Spanish government will have to withdraw its armies, and the gen-eral idea seems to be that the conditions at home, as evidenced by and emphasized by the Canovas assassination, will be made a pretext for the withdrawal. Public men speak in terms of praise of he dead premier. He was regarded as one of the really strong men of Spain-one of "His career was that of the remarkably successful politician rather than of a states-man whose fame will figure in history, but he stood head and shoulders above most of his fellows," is the estimate a leading sen-ator put upon him tonight. "As a whole, his influence has been for good, and he has peen particularly successful in holding to gether the discordant elements in Spanish politics in the maintenance of the consti-tutional monarchy. While there is great om vet for reform, he has done his part. His place will be hard to fill."

NEWS RECEIVED IN HAVANA. Wild Excitement Is Produced on the Stock Exchange. Havana, August 9.-The news of the assassination of Senor Canovas caused great onsternation here. On its receipt at 8 clock last night the authorities and many prominent local politicians went to the palace of the captain general. The tidings oon spread and this morning there was wild excitement on the stock exchange and throughout the city. Stocks and shares fell considerably.

Consul General Lee was among the first to express regret and sympathy. Captain General Weyler still remains in the field. At first there was acute anxiety with refernce to the political effect of the death of Canovas, but when it became known that General Azcarraga had assumed office, con-fidence was restored and the effect of it was manifested on the exchange. All classes recognize the great loss to Spain, and acknowledge the ability of Canovas. Further developments are eagerawaited. Little or nothing has yet been the Assassination.

Will Change the Political Situation on the Island. PROMINENT CUBARS TALK OF THE KILLING

All of Them Are of the Opinion That Canovas's Death Means Better Times in Cuba.

The Cubans of Atlanta are rejoicing over the death of Canovas del Castillo, premier of Spain. Every one of the large colony of Cubans in the city expresses delight at the assassination of the prime minister. All day yesterday the Cubans talked of the killing me. the killing. The Cuban poolroom on Peach-tree street was the headquarters for the larger part of the crowd, and it was her the refugees from the struggling sland met and talked over the situation The Cubans argue that the death of Canovas will hasten the end of the war with Spain. Some of them contend that such will not be the case, but a great umber think that it means an early set ment of the insurrection.

Dr. John Pla, who is among the most epresentative Cubans in the city, is delighted over Canovas's death but he doe not think it will result in a quicker end to the insurrection. He and several other prominent Cubans think that the death of the Spanish premier will have a good result, but not of a nature expected by the large majority of the Cubans here.

Dr. Pla says that one result of the asassination will be that Weyler will be re called and a less brutal man sent to take his place. He thinks that if Sagasta succeeds Canovas the war will be conducted on more civilized principles and that less barbarism will be manifested. Dr. Pla does not think that the autonomists will come into power now. He says that the that the war will not end until Cuba is entirely separate from Spain.

tho has been in Atlanta for several death of Canovas will be a great thing for Cuba. He thinks that a better and more humane general will be sent to the field to take Weyler's place and that the war will be carried on in a less brutal way. He thinks that there will be no more bar-barous treatment of the pacificos and that barous treatment of the pacificos and that all Cubans not actually engaged in fight-ing will be treated humanely.

"Canovas should have been killed twen-ty years ago," said Oscar Pacetti, the well-known Cuban cigar man. Pacetti talked warmly on the subject of Canovas's death and expressed the belief that it meant brighter times for Cuba. He did not think that the end of the war would be hastened, but he thought that so long as the war continued it would not be characterized by such brutality as heretofore. Dr. Castroverde and numerous other Cu bans expressed a firm belief that the end of the insurrection is now close at hand. Dr. Castroverde stated that he thought the Spanish government had almost exhausted Spanish government had almost exhausted its finances and that the death of Canovas would act as a last blow for the mother country. The doctor thought Canovas's death was a blessing and he rejoiced over the event.

All of the Atlanta Cubans think that it means better times in Cuba, but they are divided on the probable result. The majority seem to think that the end of the war will be brought sooner by Canovas's death.

THE CZAR NA AND EMPRESS ARE PRESENT

Bond of Friendship Between the Two Rulers Made Stronger by the Close Association.

St. Petersburg, August 9.-Upon the occasion yesterday of the presentation by the municipal authorities of St. Petersburg of bread and salt to the emperor and empress of Germany the chief burgomaster expressed the joy of the inhabitants at the visit of their majesties to Russia and heartily welcomed them to the capital.

Emperor William in reply thanked the municipality for the kind reception acorded him and added:

"We have just returned from visiting the tombs of the Russian emperors in the cathedral in whose hallowed precincts the history of the great Russian empire passed before by spiritual vision, bringing home to me with renewed force how desirable is the maintenance of the traditional friendly relations between Russia and Germany and between the two dynastles in the interest of both empires European peace and European order."

The people of St. Petersburg are lavishly entertaining the German sailors and the municipality of St. Petersburg has made municipality of St. Petersburg has made presents of silver cups to the German officers and cigarette cases to the sailors.

The military review at Camp Krasno-Helø was a grand spectacle and came off in brilliant weather. The troops under the command of Grand Duke Vladimir were drawn up in a square, in the center of which was the imperial tent. The German emperor were the uniform of the St. emperor wore the uniform of the St Petersburg grenadler guards and the Russian emperor that of a uhlan of the guards. The dowager czarina, the czarina and the German empress were seated in a four-horse carriage and after driving along the hollow square took a position directly in front of the tent, from which point they watched a gorgeous and picturesque march Emperor Nicolas led the guards in front of Emperor William, Grand Duke Vladimir and the other grand dukes riding behind the czar, who subsequently led the fensky regiment past the kaiser. The latter cried in Russian:

"I greet you, my brave fellows!"

The men saluted his majesty in response Then Emperor William led the Viborg regiment past the czar, followed by the grand dukes, each leading his respective regiment. The whole review came to a glitregiment. The whole review came to a glittering finish with the march past the horse guards and Cossack artillery.

Emperor William highly complimented Grand Duke Vindimir on the fine appearance of the troops and the precision of the movements and he subsequently decorated. General Vannovosky with the Order of the Black Eagle, and General Obrutscheff, chief of staff, with the Grand Cross of the Red Eagle, set in brilliants. After luncheon their majesties drove to the Peterhof palace and after dining there witnessed a beautiful open-air ballet of Olgaisland.

The Truth Bluntly Told.

The truth is sometimes unpalatable, especially when it is told in the blunt, offhand fashion characteristic of The New York Sun. Our contemporary tells the truth bluntly when it has occasion to make remarks about those persons who, believing in the gold standard, still pretend to be democrats. It hurts, of course, but the men who permit themselves to be officially represented by such a politician as Bynum can hardly expect to attract sympathy by wincing by groaning. As Mr. Dana says, practically all the democrats in the country believe in the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without regard to the financial policy of other nations. The Sun goes Democrats who don't so believe, or who, like Mr. Gorman and his friends, living in a republican state—for such Maryland is-think it is politic to take refuge in mean-ingless or internationally deceptive phrases, have no business in the democratic party They are not in harmony with it. They are an absurd and a powerless minority in The vast majority of democrats want free silver. They are not going to conceal or change their views for the sake of pleasing shifty epicenes.

The trimming goldbug democrats, whether they have stayed in the democracy or joined the so-called national democrats. are few and utterly unimportant. The real gold demodrats, the men who are not the dupes of a name which at present means nothing, act with the republican party. The infirm of purpose among the others cannot expect, even if some of them hope, that the democratic party will swallow its vital principles for the sake of getting their inconsiderable support. It is the little mi-nority which yearns for harmony. The cratic party is in harmony with it-

This is the truth, and it is not a whit too severely stated. The Sun, having the courage of its convictions and knowing full well the stark and naked hypocrisy which is the basis of the socalled "national democratic party," is acting with the republican party. There is no other refuge for an honest man who believes in the gold standard, and who wants to make his convictions count at the ballot box.

Of course it was unnecessary for Mr. Dana to include the Maryland democrats in the category of "national" dem-They declared for gold last year, but this year they are getting away from it with reasonable celerity. The Constitution abhors the straddle they made, but the straddle is Gorman and Gorman is the straddle, and if we are to have the benefit of his services, we must take this preternaturally "slick" politician as we find him. He did good work for the democratic party last year, and he will do good work for it. again, if he lives. Remembering his useful activity, democrats can afford to forgive Gorman a good many straddles, including wabbles.

The truth that hurts is that the gold democrats who have remained out of the democratic party, or who have gone through the hypocritical farce of organizing another party, are so few in number that their capers are really contemptible. There is but one place of refuge for the democrat who cannot accept the Chicago platform, and that is in the republican party. The really conscientious men who bolted the party have already gone into the republican ranks, consequently they are taking no part in the farcial antics of the small minority who pretend to believe that the democratic party will smash its platform and suppress its convictions order to entice them back into the

The democratic party asks no man o surrender his convictions. It has set forth its principles, applying them as remedies for the evils of the hour. and says to the voters of the country: "If you can accept these, your support and influence will be welcome." As the As the democrats of the country do not propose to surrender their convictions on vital principles, it expects none of its opponents to surrender theirs. When the democratic voters took charge of their party organization last year, and dictated the Chicago platform before the instrument was written, they determined that there should be no more straddles. They intended that the democratic position on all the vital es of the day should be clearly, candidly and emphatically stated. The esult was that the Chicago platform is the most democratic declaration that the party has made to the country in forty years.

Under these circumstances, it was natural that some of those who have been acting with the party since the war should discover that they were in the This was expected by the wrong pew. democratic leaders and predicted by The Constitution. We said before the national convention met that some of the brethren would discover at the last moment that their lamps were either empty or contained the wrong brand of oil. And it was even so. But how hypocritical and farcial it is for those democrats who cannot accept the Chicago platform to refuse to follow their convictions where they lead, and, instead of going into the republican party, to pretend to be the keepers of "the democratic covenant," as Editor Watterson phrases it! How hypocritical and farcial it is for an infinitesimally small minority to pretend to believe that they can influence the democratic party into swallowing its convictions for the sake of securing their Fortunately, we do not have any such spectacle as this in Georgia. The bolters who can stomach republicanism, with all it means in this section, have gone into that party. The rest have accepted, or will accept, the Chicago platform.

A Warning to the Common People. The intelligent editors of the country do not mince their words in denouncing the recent injunction issued against the workingmen and their leaders by Justice Jackson, of the United States district court, in West Virginia,

The editor of the most conservative of our exchanges, The Springfield Republican, can hardly restrain itself in commenting on the enormity of Judge Jackson's order. Words are lacking to characterize it properly. "How any judge not a mere tool of some corporate interest could be guilty of making such an order passes the understanding," says our contemporary.

In truth, the order makes a crime of what is not a crime, and the judge stands ready to try the victim without a jury and to punish him in the court's discretion, which if it is as unbridled as is the judge's contempt for the rights of the people, will consign any and all men to life imprisonment.

The Republican remarks that Judge Jackson's order is as gross a usurpation of power as was ever recorded in the annals of tyranny, and says that "the exercise of such a power constitutes a deadly blow at law and liberty and popular government."

This view we regard as too gloomy. The people are superior even to tyrants who chance to be clothed with authority. The judge's order, instead of being a blow at liberty, simply comes as a warning to the people to look after their rights and liberties before the tools of trusts have destroyed them. A thousand judicial tyrants, knaves and ignoramuses cannot take away from the people the liberties for which they shed their blood and gave their substance. But the common people must take warning. The order of Judge Jackson, following the omnibus injunction issued at Chicago in 1894, shows what they have to expect if they continue to place in power the party which has outraged every tradition of American freedom by surrendering the government and the courts to the control of trusts and monopolies.

Just now the Hawaiian question is vital, and in the main the solution of the vital, and in the main the present status will fall upon Colonel Buck. THE MAN IN THE FURROW.

By Tybee Light, August 9.-Just now the leading farmers of Georgia have their grips packed and are inquiring the way to Tybee. They have heard of Tybee light and know that it is near Savannah, where, once upon a time, Ned Brace astonished the natives by showing what an up-countryman could do. Tybee, in the meantime, is anxious that the farmers should not lose their way and is making every effort to make plain the path and guide the tillers of the soil toward the little stretch of sand beach which has become so famous in Georgia.

That the farmer should have his vacation is as right as it is natural, for it is upon his labor that the prosperity of the state is built. In the hurry and bustle of business those who trade upon the world's products are apt to overrate their importance and pay but little regard to the man in the furrow. They talk about their development of trade, relating their enterprise in fostering the public interests, and the industry with which they have worn themselves down. They rush through a winter of great activity, which languishes somewhat in the spring, and when the hot term comes they hie themselves to cool retreats, leaving their business affairs in possession of care-takers. Then they begin to count upon the opening prospects of the coming fall, when, lo! all their calculations depend upon the work of the farmer.

Thus it is that the importance of the man in the furrow gains recognition. Ignored all the year, he becomes the pivot upon which the business world rests. What yield will the cotton crop give, upon which the world awaits its fabrics? What is the news from the wheat fields, for whose bread the hungry world looks in solicitude? And from the great corn fields, with behind them the accompaniment of meat products, what is the promise? Hope bounds high as the man in the furrow shouts back the word of progress, that the cotton bolls are op their globes of wealth, the wheat is bulging in its head and the corn is full in the ear! The farmer clothes the world and feeds it, and when its business man drops by the wayside with the dry rot, he rushes in and fills his place from great reserve force of nature.

How little think those who would array country against city of the fact that it is the farmer himself who furnishes the actual brain as well as the raw reaterial which keeps the city active. Go from one business house to another and men like the late M. C. Kiser and the living James G. Oglesby will be found to be but recruits from the farm who saw their charce to build up in the city. Go to any city establishment of thirty years existence, when the founder is resting its burdens upon younger shoulders, and it will be found that it is not the city man's son who is coming into the management, but the clear-minded and strong-limbed countrymen, who but a few years before decided to try his fortune in the city. So true is it that the sons of the city go to seed without a harvest and their places are taken by the young men from the country that it occasions no surprise.

The city boy grows up in a contracted space. The square upon which he lives is his world, the little things of earth he dispises, and he begins to burn the candle of existence too soon. For him there is little opportunity for the display of sterling manhood, or the enjoyment of life in its relation to nature. The country boy is, from the first, a child of necessity, and early learns the lesson of how to make ends meet. The ways and means of life is a hard and effective school from which to graduate. The pupils therein cannot sit down with folded hands and wait for help, but they must help themselves, and at once. The broad fields give scope to the mind and strength to the heart-the country boy is a man at ten, though he does not know it, and at twenty he stands a young giant, whilst his city cousin is the dyspeptic victim of vile eigarettes and bad hours. The other day I was watching the crowds which pass and repass at the junction of Broad and Marietta streets, when I was attracted by two figures. The first was a man with pipe-stem legs, haggard face, and nervous manner-a man who talked lightly about silly things, and who, though young, had evidently spent the force of life. He was hurrying to some central office work, where he was but a part of the machinery of the building. Meeting him was a solid, substantial countryman, wearing home-made clothes, but with a breadth of coat-tail which indicated that he wanted room, and feet encased in square-tood boots which gave weight to his step. There was about him a conscious air of proprietor. ship, a feeling which springs from the possession of acres. The contrast between the man who obeyed orders, who lived on a crowded lot, and who kept time to the town clock and the masterful man from the country, accustomed to think and to direct, was so marked as to excite comment from those who looked on.

"The country is the making of a man, said Mr. Hugh T. Inman the other day while looking over the French Broad valley from the gallery of Battery Park ho tel. "I was born not more than eighty miles up this valley on a farm where, with my brothers, I had to work from early morning to night. Not long since I visited the old place for the first time in thirty years, and I must say that I enjoyed it. found the old names still there, some times borne by one in the second generation, however, and was warmly welcomed by them. It is from the country we mus get our men of stalwart form and clear brain, for it is in the struggle with nature that such development comes. But," said ne, "did it never seem strange to you that commercial experts place so much stress upon the wheat crop of the country, instead of looking to the promise from the cotton fields?"

"Just think of it a minute," said he. "The cotton crop is worth $300,000,000 as it stands whitening the fields. As certain as the sun rises the south brings into the country that large sum of money every year. For thirty years, during which tim the country has been rocked by panic, when wheat and corn have at times been short, when the prices did not warrant the transportation of the food crop to the seaboard there never has been a failure on the part of the south to add its assured contribution to the resources of the nation. Just think of the colossal sum of money which the south has brought into the country since the crop of 1867 was marketed-$200,000,000 a year, or $9,000,000,000! Overpowering as this sum is, it is not to be re-enforced by the profit which comes from manufactur-ing. The newspapers of the south should hammer the value of the southern cotton crop into the public mind until it acknowledges that the cotton mill, and not the grain field, is the test of the country's so-

The future to which Mr. Inman points is well shown in a recent compilation by Commissioner Nesbitt. By the tenth census there were in all the states south of the District of Columbia 542,048 spindles, and in Georgia 198,656, while by the eleventh census-that of 1890-Georgia alone contained 445,452 spindles, and today this state alone has more spindles than had the entire south prior to 1880. In 1880 the total number of looms in the state was 4,493, which in the decade had more than doubled, increasing to 10,459 in 1890. In 1880 the capital invested was $6,348,657, with a product valued at $6,481,894. In 1890 the total capital was $17,664,675, with a product valued at $12,635,629. In 1880 the average number of employees was 56,348 who received in wages $1,135,185. The number of employees in 1890 was over 100,000, receiving 2,366,086 in wages. In 1880 the number of bales of cotton consumed was 71,389, and in 1890 it was 145,869. The story of Georgia might be repeated of all the other cotton states, so that we may see the srengh of the claim that the cotton crop of south is the fulcrum of the nation's com-

It is meet, therefore, that Tybee should present a hearty welcome to the men from the furrow, whose work has restored a country robbed of its substance almost within the generation of the men who lost it. They will walk with a wide step which city sidewalkes may not accommodate, and may be forced out into the middle of the road, but wherever they go, they are entitled to the right of way, for upon their work all our hopes are builded, and in their success lies wrapped up all of prosperity there is for other callings. Judge Candler Refused To Grant Him a New Trial.

WENT TO THE SUPREMECOURT

Was Argued Exhaustively Before That Body Yesterday Afternoon.

DECISION WILL BE RENDERED TODAY

If the Supreme Court Denies Him a New Trial, Governor Atkinson Will Be the Only Recourse. Failing There, He Will Hang August 18.

Judge Candler yesterday overruled a motion for a new trial for H. S. Perry and refused to sign a bill of exceptions to arry the case to the supreme court. Perry's attorneys went direct to the supreme requiring Judge Candler to sign the bill of exceptions, but at the hour of adjournment yesterday afternoon the supreme court had not reached a decision. A decision will be made this morning.

It was Perry's banner day and throughout the whole time he was in the greatest suspense and his attorneys were exerting every effort and putting into use every instrument of the law to prevent his execution on the 18th.

Judge Candler heard the motion in chambers while Judge A. W. Fite was erganizing the fall term of the DeKalb superior court. The motion was long and recited their plea for a new trial. This was the affidavit of W. H. Trout, to whom Lanier

The motion was made by H. C. Peeples and was signed by the prisoner's attorneys. Judge Candler would allow no argument, and after carefully reading the no-tion, he refused to grant the new trial. Colonel W. C. Glenn was present to represent the state and ready to argue the case if it was necessary.

The motion contained principally the af-fidavits of certain persons who swore that they were acquarited 5th Treut, the new witness, and thought he was of

"I have carefully examined this motion and in the light of the record of the case as tried at the special term of 'his court, and which has been fully passed upon by this court and the supreme court. I had nothing 'extraordinary contained in it. "It is in effect a motion fo' a relearing. It will be seen by an examination of the record of the former trial that there is absolutely nothing new in this affidevit."

"It contains the identical defense set up in the former trial, both by evidence and by defendant's skatement; therefore it is merely cumulative, but if it was new, if it was not cumulative, if the effidavit was not cumulative, if the effidavit was not cumulative, if the effidavit was true, it centains no matter that would be sufficient to justify nor in the least degree mitigate this homicide.

The killing occurred in klonday after the defendant had followed up the decased and pursued him since Saturday before it occurred, after he lad talked before it occurred. The course to be pursued.

Therefore, I hold that this evidence is immaterial; that it could not change the result of the former trial; that it ought not to do it, and if it is material that it seeks to introduce no new matter of deense whatever.

firmed by this honorable court on July 21, 1897, and petitioner has since been sentenced to suffer death by hanging on August 18, 1897.

The superior court of the county of De-Kalb was not in session when the said judgment of affirmance was rendered and the first term of that court to which petitioner could present the motion for a new trial hereinafter referred to was the regular August term, 1897, which began on Monday, August 3, 1897.

On said day petitioner, by his counsel, presented to the court in writing a motion for a new trial on extraordinary grounds, to-wit: on the ground of evidence newly discovered since the overruling of his said former motion for new trial and asked for a rule nisi thereon. The court refused to grant said rule.

Petitioner, by his counsel, then tendered to the judge presiding, Hon. John S. Candler, a true bill of exceptions assigning error upon the refusal to grant such rule nisi, which bill of exceptions said judge refused to certify, which was without fault of petitioner or his counsel.

Said bill of exceptions and indorsement declining to certify are hereto attached as an exhibit and leave of reference to them is prayed.

Bankston for the killing of Charley Welch, which was begun-last Saturday, occupied the entire day yesterday, begin ning at 11 o'clock in the morning, and was not finished when court adjourned.

The defense began its side of the cas and gave it a thorough airing, but did not conclude last night when the proceed-ings were brought to a halt on account of a legal question which arose in regard to the testimony to be introduced by the defense regarding the character of the dead

Great stress was laid on the location of the wounds in the body of Welch and the witnesses on this point underwent very severe questioning from both sides. clothes worn by Welch when was shot were introduced, and thou prosecution that the bullet of the lower ound entered from the back, still the them said they believed the ball entered slow. The defense opened with a short talk by Judge Anderson, in which he out-lined what they expected to show. They relied almost entirely on the doctrine of

The most interesting witnesses of the morning were Sam Hewitt, whom the defense claims was present when the shootg occurred and saw it from beginning to end, and Dr. I. A. Cofer, who examined and probed the wounds in Welch's body. The other witnesses were for the purpose of proving Bankston's good character and his truthfulness. Several witnesses of this kind were placed on the stand. Welch's character was attacked.

Both Witness Hewltt and Dr.
Cofer were given a rigid cross-examining by Attorney Hughes, who was assisted by Attorney Sam Crane in the absence of Mr. Albert. Colonel Moyers entered the case on the side of the defense. Mr. H. H. Cabaniss was the first witness for the defense. He testified that he had known Bankston for a number of years and had used his influence to get him on the police force. He regarded him as a peaceful man and thought he was truthful. Dr. Catching testified that he had known Bankston two years and thought he was an honest, upright and truthful man, R. S. Crutcher, who had known him twelve ears, testified to his good character. Sergeant White, of the police department knew Bankston and Bankston had serve under him. He didn't think his characte for peacefulness could be better. He said did not know Charley Welch's wife of step-daughter. Eye Witness Tells the Story. Sam Hewitt, twenty-one years of age and the son of Detective Jim Hewitt, was the next and most important witness for the lefense. He knew Bankston by sight and had seen him last Monday night. Met him at the capitol on the Washington street side and had talked with him. Walked back to Decatur street down Piedmont venue with him and pointed out Welch, who was crossing Decatur street. Bank-ton, according to Hewitt, then called to Welch, but Welch would not come to him He banded Hewitt his wheel and started after Welch, who had broken into a cun. Hewitt said he put the wheel on the side-walk and followed the two men as fast as he could. When he was close behind them and they were some little distance up Piedmont avenue Welch whirled around. He had a knife in his hand and attempted to cut Bankston. Bankston was close to him, but stopped when he turned around, then the officer fired and Welch ran on. This performance was repeated twice more said Hewitt, and each time Bankston fired to scare Welch when he turned to cut him. When they got up on the railroad tracks Welch ran behind some cars, followed closely by Hewitt and Bankston. When Welch was some distance around the cars, said Hewitt, he turned and advanced on Bankston, saying: "Damn you, you have wasted your last one; now I'll fix you." When he advanced Bankston stepped back and when he came on Bankston fired and Welch fell forward on the tracks.

Welch fell forward on the tracks.
Hewitt said Bankston then blew the whistle for aid. He stayed with Bankston. At first two men came with lanterns and then others came. He said when Eankston fired the first few times it did not look like he was trying to hit his man. He saw she body turned over and saw the knife under him. It was near one of his hands.

On the Cross-Examination. Attorney Hughes then began to cross examine Hewitt and gave him a very rigid examination. He made the witness

Whether the fair will be held or whether the officers of the society will decide that there are not sufficient funds in pocket for that purpose and will postpone it until next year, cannot be said. Strenuous efforts have been made by the committee to get everything in shape and but for the delay of some of the railroads nothing would be lacking. The full amount of bonus re-quired from Atlanta has been raised and has been at the disposal of the officers of the society for some time, but for some reason no definite steps have been taken. THEY WANT DEED SET ASIDE

It Is Alleged That Mrs. McMillan Repudiated Her Trust.

MAY INVOLVE MANY OTHERS

Upon the Death of Her Husband Mrs. McMillan Became the Trustee of the Property Which She Atterwards Claimed as Her Own.

Property on Marietta street estimated to be worth $30,000 is involved in a suit which was filed yesterday at noon by the children of Mrs. Janie H. McMillan, who claim an interest in the real estate, although the property has been mortgaged and is now held in title by an eastern syndicate. The suit was brought into the superior court by Colonel Peter F. Smith, who represents the heirs, and who will fight the issue through the long channel the suit will

It many ways the bill is one of the most unusual that have been filed in the Fulton court. Mrs. McMillan, one of the defendants, held the property in trust, having given bond in the sum of $20,000. While Judge Marshall Clarke was on the bench, she filed a bill in the superior court alleging that it was her money that had been used in the purchase of the property, and she asked that the trust deed be set aside and that she be allowed to hold the property in fee simple. The request was granted, Mrs. McMillan repudiating the trust, it is said, and becoming the owner of the property. The plaintiffs claim there has been con-The plaintiffs claim there has been conspiracy and collusion, and that the acts of their mother have been fraudulent.

The bill is filed by Archie McMillan and Janie A. McMillan, for themselves and as next friend of their minor sisters, against Janie H. McMillan and the New England Mortgage Company and C. W. Hunnicutt et al. The bill sets up that in 1851 McMillan & Snow made a trust deed for a consideration paid for a large amount of property in the city of Atlanta, including the property the city of Atlanta, including the property known as the "Sherman house," on Marietta street. # CHAMBERLIN-JOHNSON-DuBOSE COMPANY Great August Trade Sale of Furniture

The great trade recorded during July justifies the rich expectations we have in regard to the sales of August. From its dawn to now, business has been excellent, and we take extra pains to prevent any aftermath of dullness. The strong movement already begun must go on gaining in power and volume. That's why we seize upon Furniture as an appropriate and opulent theme for advertising. The season suggests it; the stock emphasizes it, and the wonderful values fix and clinch the thought. We are splendid on Furniture-matchless. We urge your critical examination of the goods offered.

Analyze our statements; test our claims. Give credence to neither, if you choose, until both are verified. Come here with colossal chunks of caution. Accept our announcements in their actual literal sense. When you investigate, be exact, precise, critical. Don't skip a point. If you are a Furniture novice bring an expert with you. You have the fullest freedom, the largest liberty throughout that entire vast stretch of floor space. We'll encourage and assist you in all your researches and explorations, whether you want to buy or not.

WE ARE EXPERT GATHERERS OF ALL GRADES OF GOOD FURNITURE

This community recognizes the elements of superiority that centers leadership here. Our merits, talent, system of management, plan of distribution and general capacity are too well appreciated to exploit now. Clear-headed and discriminating people acknowledge the enterprise and ability that make present opportunities in Furniture possible. The attractions today represent the choicest products of the most notable American manufacturing specialists. The cuts are purely arbitrary. Nothing about the goods to warrant the reductions-no compromise in qualities or styles. You may depend upon it as an absolute certainty that prices will range from 25 to 40 per cent higher when the regular Fall season opens. We guarantee every article to be fresh and perfect.

We have nothing to do with that class of tawdry, meretricious Furniture, made chiefly to dazzle the unwary. We deal only in substantial, reliable and artistic Furniture. The sort that does not crack, warp, blister or fall to pieces. Gloss and color and decoration are not sufficient. There must be grace, solidity and proper construction of undoubted materials to avoid worry and loss. Our Furniture will stand hard service and exposure and the ungentle usage of frequent removals,

What follows will be welcome news to hundreds who are now thinking of "fixing up" their homes for the winter. We provide elegance and comfort with the added charm of unrivaled economy.

Big Reductions On Folding Beds During August

There's a room in nearly every home that would be doubly useful if it contained a Folding Bed. So convenient for storing away an unexpected guest who comes to spend the night. No embarrassment; no confusing preparations; no makeshift necessary—if you have a Folding Bed. Such a space saver. A small bedroom can be comfortable when minus a large Bed permanently outspread. Place a Folding Bed in that vacant corner of the sitting room or library, and you'll be ready for any emergency. Combination Folding Beds are handy for offices, too. ### Big Reductions on Chiffoniers During August

Our Chiffoniers are ideal. The assortment is free from trash and truck. Every one is minutely examined by a know-how man before it takes position in the ranks here. The wood is scrutinized; the polish is tested; the fit of the drawers must be perfect; the metal handles, the carving, the mirror—all details are studied. That's why we are so willing to guarantee each Chiffonier we sell. These reductions are astonishing, also genuine.

Big Reductions On All Furniture During August

We have bought out a beautiful line of Vernis Martin specialties, including Cabinets, Desks, Curio Tables and other high-art pieces The display spaces are fairly abloom with radiant and fascinating creations. Some are pure Medieval French, both in scheme and decoration. Embroidery of delicate festoons and flowers contrast exquisitely with the rich-toned grounds. Various superb Marqueterie effects are in the exhibit. Every piece is modeled on liberal and artistic lines.

Parlor Cabinets ...... $16.00 to $125.00 Ladies' Desks ...... $ 6.00 to $40.00 Leather Couches..... $25.00 to $60.00 Hat Racks..... $10.00 to $100.00 Library Tables ...... $ 3.50 to $35.00 Parlor Tables ..... $ 4.50 to $28.00 Book Cases..... $ 7.50 to $75.00 China Closets ...... $15.00 to $200.00

And there are revelations in Parlor Suites, Extension Tables, Wardrobes, Office Desks, Fancy Rockers and Chairs. All these interests baffle attempts at descriptions. We could fill this and another page and then not adequately tell the complete story about Rockers and Chairs. Sorts for parlor, hall, sitting room, dining room, library, office—every style, price and finish.

Big Values in Metal Bedsteads During August

Our Brass and Iron Bedsteads show all the new ideas, new improvements, new patents. Rail joints made of malleable iron, strong and neat. When the Beds are set up all joints are locked as rigid and solid as if forged in one piece. No screws to get loose. They never ricket, creak or become unsteady.

Solid Brass Bedsteads.....$28.00 to $65.00

Important to All Who Need Carpets

Our eager wish is to get the exceptional facts about Carpets before the public. This accomplished, there'll be no difficulty in the selling. Buying Carpets from the importers and manufacturers this season was very much like trout fishing. Prizes were landed by decisive action at the vital moment. Our buyer went to the markets early. He secured hundreds of trophies before the cost was increased by tariff changes. Piled up in one section of the department are eighty rolls of Tapestry Carpet. Twelve hours after he closed the trade for them, the price advanced six dollars per roll. Profit on that deal, by being prompt, amounts to nearly five hundred dollars. We give you the benefit. Merchants who bought after the Dingley bill became a law are unable to compete with us. The stiff, selfish way would be for us to mark all our new Carpets consistent with the rising market. But that's not our idea of fair and broad merchandising. As liberal retailers we strain every point to favor customers. It will be impossible to repeat the present offerings when this stock is gone. Nothing but a direct reversal of national economic legislation can give existence to the cheapness that now control here.

These Prices Include Making and Laying

Mixed Ingrains, half wool filling . . . . 421/2c. All-wool Ingrains . . . . 50c and 60c. Tapestry Brussels . . . . 50c, 65c and 75c. Velvets, very special quality . . . . $1.00. Axminsters . . . . $1.25. Large assortment Moquettes and Body Brussels at pre-tariff prices.

It is important for you to know that these Carpets are the latest productions of the best makers in the world. Imcomparable qualities—newest designs and colorings. We will send a representative with a full variety of samples to confer with all intending purchasers who live out of town. A line on a postal card will bring our complete Carpet department to your home.

Rugs. Chief interest centers in our Smyrna, Wilton, Oriental and Japanese Rugs. Each of the lines is complete in every respect. They come in all sizes, from the smallest to the huge kind that covers the entire floor of an ordinary room. Scores and scores of designs in color combinations that defy all efforts of description. Some are brilliant, sharp, obtrusive; others are soft, mellow and delicate. All are rich and exquisite We collected a laage quantity of the finest specimens before the prices went higher. Those dealers who failed to foresee the advance are now murmuring the sad, sad words, "it might have been." If you need new Rugs to brighten and lighten the home for the sere days that are coming, you must not ignore the bargains we offer.

Awnings. We have all the strongest materials and latest fixtures for Awnings. Our people who make and adjust them understand their work thoroughly. If you have windows, porches or doors to Awn we can save you money. Shop over the town. Get lowest prices elsewhere. Then come here, or come here first-you'll gain time.

Curtains. Our Curtain department is in tone with the latest foreign and domestic ideas. These give a hint of the attractions: Nottingham . . . $1.25 to $10.00 Novelty. Stripe . . $4.50 to $10.00 Irish Point . . . $4.00 to $16.50 Cluny . . . . $5.00 to $15.00 French Lace . . $7.50 to $18.00 Point d' Calais . . $7.50 to $20.00 Renaissance . . . $8.50 to $20.00 Brussels . . . . $7.50 to $35.00 Point d' Parie . . . $8.50 to $25.00 Marie Antoinette . . $16 to $30.00 In addition to the foregoing Curtains by the pair, we have many novelties in yard goods, including Empire, Empress, Embroidered and Dotted Muslins and Swisses and Bobbinette with lace insertions and edgings to match.

Pillows and Mattresses The Pillows and Mattresses we make are ideal. The feathers that give substance to the Pillows are deodorized by the hot-air process. They are pure, sweet and downy. Our Mattresses get their springiness and softness from genuine South American long drawings. Best ticking used. We make them solid or in sections for easy handling.

Draperies Our Drapery man is a genius, an artist, an expert. He also practical. If you have windows, alcove, arches or follows. ing doors to adorn, he will go to your home and get your ideas or suggest own. You'll find them original and charmingly effective. If desired, he make a pen-and-ink drawing or a tinted water color of the design that will be embellish your home. You'll find his estimate of cost very low.

The range for selection is almost endless in Tapesrsy and Velour Drapen The patterns and colorings are distinctive and novel. You should study beauty of our Portieres by the pair. All the finest European conceits in Der and Tapestry-$5.00 up. If you need Upholstering-consult us.

Nettings Mosquito time, sure enough. They're beginning to sing to bite and disturb your sleep. We have all the Nets that protect you from these pests of August. Various kinds of patented frame. There can be no nocturnal rest for weary workers unless they are sheltered neath a Mosquito Net. Our prices are the lowest.

BRILLIANT YEAR FOR LECTURERS

Manta Lecture Association Elects Officers for the Coming Season.

FEW CHANGES WERE MADE

President Marshall Clarke and Old Officers Will Serve Again.

MANY FINE ATTRACTIONS ARE PROMISED

Open the Second Course at the Grand in the Fall.

The annual election of the Atlanta Lecture Association was held last night at the Young Men's library. The members present expressed a resolve coming season. If possible. The first sea-son was such a financial and literary sucon was such a limited and literary suc-ess that the second year's membership romises to almost doubled last year's. All the members present last night declar-ed that the association had the most briled that the association had the most brilliant infancy any institution was ever known to have in Atlanta. The report of the president, Mr. F. J. Paxon, showed that about $1.80 had been collected last that about the sale of annual tickets and this, espite the fact that the association was not organized until December. The rewas not organized ceipts at the box office added more than $$400 and after giving ten entertainments, the association carried over $165 in cash with which to start the new season.

It was stated that if 600 annual tickets are sold this year the association will give a course which for brilliancy, has never been approached in America. The very best lecturers and entertainers in the world are reserving time for Atlanta, among them the celebrated arctic explorer. Dr. Fridt-jof Nansen. If it can be arranged he will be brought to Atlanta to open the season in October or November, but if his engagements will not permit this, the opening lecture will in all probability be delivered e will in all probability be delivered by Dr. Russell H. Conwell, whose inspiring lecture, "Acres of Diamonds," made such a great hit here last winter.

Among those who are reserving time for the Atlanta association are:

Dr. Nansen, the arctic explorer.
Dr. Russell H. Conwell, of Philadelphia.
Professor Dinsmore, with a popular lecure on astronomy. Dr. Hamilton W. Mable, associate editor

Frank Beard the cartoonist. John Fex, the novelist. Alexander Black with a "picture play." "Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde," Ex-Senator J. J. Ingalls, Dr. Henson, of Chicago.

Dr. J. J. Lewis, who lectured last season

Professor DeMotte, Charles Underhill and '. Hopkinson Smith. Last season was such a great success that and there are at least fifty good attractions

REED SWIMS ST. SIMONS SOUND. Atlantian Lives in the Water One Hour and Twenty-Six Minutes.

Passengers from the island tonight bring the reports that Homer Reed, an Atlanta newspaper man, accomplished the daring feat of swimming St. Simons sound, At, 11, o'clock today Reed appeared on the ocean pier dock, accompanied by a party of friends. Lieutenant Frank Aiker with his launch transported Reed and s party of friends across to Jekyl point, On the north end of Jekyl, two and threequarter miles from St. Simons' ocean pler Reed plunged into the water. The launch followed and for one hour and twenty-six minutes Reed was watched battling against the water. The launch kept in line-throwing distance all the time, but Reed did not call for it. Part of the way he floated, but against a strong running tide. Some magnificent swimming was

Reed is the toast of the island contingent and was entertained by Manager Clancey with a stag supper tonight. His feat is regarded locally as wonderful and one of the most daring yet recorded around this coast.

It frew out of a discussion of McNallen swimming the English channel recently and a wager from Reed of $100 that he could swim the St. Simons sound.

$30,000 SUIT TO RECOVER LAND

Under the terms of the trust deed, a trust was created for the benefit of Mrs. McMillan for and during her life, remainder in trust for her children, then living and subsequently to be born.

This deed, it is alleged, was properly recorded. On the death of McMillan, his wife, one of the defendants in the bill, applied to be appointed trustee in his stead, and was appointed and executed a bond as trustee in the sum of $20,000.

In 1891 she filed a bill in the superior court setting up that her money originally paid for the trust property, and that, as a matter of fact, she owned the whole of the property, and asked that the trust estate be declared to be her own property and the trust deed canceled.

It is alleged in the bill that she wholly repudiated the trust and sought to have the whole of the trust property diverted to her own use, and it is further claimed in the bill that she was legally and equitably estopped from so doing, she having applied to be appointed trustee in the place of her husband and having assumed the duties of trustee. It is further alleged that a guardian was appointed for the minors, who made no defense, and that a decree was taken declaring the property to be hers.

The bill is filed to set aside the decree.

was taken declaring the property to be hers.

The bill is filed to set aside the decree. It is set up further in the bill that after the decree was taken Mrs. McMillan, one of the defendants in the bill, executed a mortgage on all the property to a mortgage company in New England; that subsequently the mortgage was foreclosed in the circuit court of the United States and the property exposed to sale, and that C. W. Hunnicutt became the purchased for $10.300, about one-third of the value of the property.

It is claimed that before the sale was confirmed notice was given to Hunnicutt that the minor children would claim their beforest. Interest.

It is sought, first, to set aside the decree in the superior court. Second, it is sought to declare the mortgage a nullity and the sale under the mortgage illegal, null and void, and to re-establish the trust. It is sought to have a new trustee appointed, the old trustee having repudiated her trust, and for general relief.

It is thought that there is other valuable property in the city belonging originally to the McMillan estate in a like situation.

Paine, Murphy & Co.'s Cotton Letter. Atlanta, August 9.—Despite rather disappointing eables from Liverpool this morning the New York market opened very steady with light offerings. The nearby options were from 1 to 3 points lower than Saturday's close, but as the call progressed it became evident that the demand exceeded the supply and prices gradually strengthened until the more distant months sold at an advance of 2 to 3 points over Saturday. Subsequently, prices gradually improved until a net improvement for the day of about 6 points was established up to noon, but owing to traders taking profits part of the gain was lost. The market appears to be in a very healthy position at the moment. It is evident the trade is beginning to attach greater importance to factors which have hitherto been practically ignored, and it will not be surprising to see a substantial revival in speculation at any time. Owing to the lateness of the crop the movement during the early part of the season will doubtless run smaller than last year for some weeks. Receipts smaller than those of an 8,500,000 crop year will doubtless exert a favorable effect, regardlesss of ultimate outturn. Drought still continues in Texas, and many complaints are being received. The Dallas News, in a recent report, claims the crop in that state will not exceed 2,400,000 bales, stating conditions are similar to those of last year at this season. At that time they were estimated at 2,240,00 Atlanta, August 9.—Despite rather disap 2,400,000 bales, stating conditions are similar to those of last year at this season. At that time they were estimated at 2,240,000 for Texas production, which will not be found far wrong. With only 2,400,000 bales in Texas, the total production would not be likely to exceed 9,500,000 bales, which amount would apparently justify higher prices. Liverpool bought a little this morning, and the professional trade also have been disposed to support prices. The trade anxiously awaits the bureau report tomornay. Comparison will be made with a conanxiously awaits the bureau report tomorrow. Comparison will be made with a condition of 86 last month, 80.1 last year, 77.9 in 1895, 91 In 1894, 80.4 in 1893, 82.3 in 1892, 88.9 in 1891 and 8.5 in 1890. New York spot sales 567 bales; middling upland, 8c.

Southern Exchange Cotton Letter.

Atlanta, August 9.—The cotton market enjoyed a quiet session today, although the feeling has been steady with the range of prices toward a higher level. The decline in Liverpool was barely a sufficient response to our weakness of Saturday, and this started prices here 1 to 2 points over the previous close, and upon the further absence of rain in central and southern Texas an improvement of 5 to 6 points took place. There was some buying upon the Texas an improvement of 5 to 6 points took place. There was some buying upon the theory that the August bureau would show a loss of condition as compared with that given for July—namely, 86, but in this belief we do not share, as we look for a condition equal to that of last month. In Texas it is admitted a loss has taken place, but accepting the weekly bureau reports as authority in other sections an improvement has taken place, which, in our opinion, will overcome any loss in Texas. It now looks as if traders will have to choose between, the effects of good trade and a large crop. The general feeling now is a great revival of business is to take place, and to what extent an advance will be held in check by a large yield is a question at present of much interest to the trade.

New York, August 9.—By Associated Press: The cotton market opened quiet and steady. The first call started with prices lower and finished with prices higher, the decline being due to reports of more or less general rains in the cotton belt with Texas the most notable exception. Before the call was finished Liverpool came higher and brought buying orders on which the market railied. Following the first call the market had a general advance of 4 to 5 points; being rather nervous in anticipation of tomorrow's crop report from Washington. In the afternoon the market was slow with a generally firm undertone, closing steady at a net advance of 1 to 4 points.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.'s Cotton Letter. New York, August 9-The trade this merning learned of an estimate by the Galveston and Dallas News of 246,000 bales Galveston and Dallas News of 246,000 bales as the probable yield of Texas. Last year their estimate was 2,240,000 bales, which was wonderfully correct. As showing the small speculation in cotton no house here had tecelved telegraphic advices of such an estimate. At one time current estimates were as high as 3,500,000 bales for that state. Beneficial rains have fallen over the entire bolt except in Texas, where each day without moisture further injures the prospects. A rumor that stock in warehouse in New York includes 6,600 to 10,000 bales of Egyptian and Peruvian cotton brought about a sharp advance of 10 points in August. The south is generally bearish, expecting a large yield and paying no attention to the wonderful revival in trade as bearing on the value of cotton or the deteriorating prospects in Texas.

The Dry Goods Market.

The Dry Goods Market.

New York, August 9.—The market for dry goods opened with firm conditions prevailing in all grades of goods. The jobbing market is subject to the visiting buyers taking advantage of the excursion rates secured by the merchants' association This stimulus was distinctly noticeable this morning in the presence of many active buyers, and a free distribution of goods in jobbing departments. The buyers are inclined to be active purchasers in nearly all department to and a general improvement seems to be inevitable. At first hands today the same strong conditions prvalled. The demand for bleached and brown goods is still a feature of trading. Advances are made as rapidly as possible in all grades. Among recently increased lines are % gypsy queen. % Florida, % signal, each advance 2½ per cent; 30 inch Our Own, 30 inch Jack Horner, 30 inch Bellard Vale and 30 inch Security 2½ percent; 44 Fairmount Butter cloths, 44 Clover Witch bleached cottons, 44 Moodbury and 44 Ballardvalo each ½c.

Coarse colored cottons are firm and bare of supplies in some quarters. The demand continued brisk. Print cloths continue very firm, with sales of odd goods on a basis of 2 9-16c for extra Continuin. Sellers are firm at the market and no further sales of regulars have been reported this week.

Riordan & Co.'s Cotton Letter.

Riordan & Co.'s Cotton Letter.

Charleston, S. C., August 9.—(Special.)—
The cotton market was uninteresting today, but prices were a shade higher. Liverpool declined 1½-64d this morning, but offset these poor quotations by cabling good buying orders heré. Manchester advices were poor. Our market opened from 3 points down on the earlier months to 3 points up on the late. There were no rains in Texas, and the efforts of the local element were directed toward lifting prices.
Outside of the Liverpool orders and a little selling by New Orleans business was at a practical standstill. January opened at 7.16, advanced to 7.20, receded again to 7.16 and closed at that figure with the tone of the market steady. The bureau report tomorrow should start prices in one direction or the other.

'Atwood' Violett, Lockwood & Co.'s Cotton Letter.

New York, August 9 .- Before the opening New York, August 9.—Before the epening there was some uneasiness as to the effect of the assassination of the Spanish premier, added to the fact that London came lower by ½ to ¾ per cent. However, no heed was paid to European Influences here. The outside public is in control of the situation. During most of the day the market was boiling; brokers rushing about the exchange with jerspiring faces—executing orders. Transactions have been of greater magnitude than for the active days of last week. Nearly all shares showing advances up to 2 o'clock, then a reaction, due to no particular cause, set in and the market fell off smarily. We believe that this is but a temporary' condition.

OUTSIDE BUYING DEMAND RUNS PRICES UP

In the Afternoon Profit Taking Started Rapid Decline and Stop-Loss Orders Were Uncovered.

New York, August 9 .- Quite a violent liquidation set in in the stock market in the last hour and a half of trading today, and prices came tumbling from their high places, the declines from the high point being in many cases very wide. What the protessional traders have been predicting for some time came to pass, namely a sufficient decline in many stocks to uncover stop loss orders by weak holders of stocks. The dealers have been aware of the "pyra-miding" of orders on a large scale—that is to say, the reinvestment of earnings as fast as made by weak holders which threatened what occurred today. It looked for a time as though the market was going to pieces under the weight of heavy offerings to realize, but after it was over a taking act of the day revealed that the net changes of importance were confined to a comparatively few stocks. It was the net changes of importance were comment to a comparatively few stocks. It was the stocks that had enjoyed sensational advances in the morning, notably the grangers, that surfered most severely in the afternoon. The seiling to realize started in the grangers; and as the market is more sensitive to the influence of this group than any other. The seiling movement soon broadened by sympathy until it included pretty much the whole list. It was noticeable that the grangers steadied and rallied even while other prices were still falling. Burlington recovering over a polat from the lowest, and there were exceptions all through the list to the weakness, some prominent stocks holding firm in the midst of the heaviest sellings of the other stocks. The buying of the morning on the rise was on enormous proportions, exceeding in volume that for a whole day of ordinary trading. There was a large falling off in the early period of the decline which was a hopeful indication that prices would resist the pressure and resum the advance. was a hopeful indication that prices would resist the pressure and resum the advance. But faint heartedness took increasing hold on the minds of holders, and the selling movement developed into something like a throwing overboard of securities. Sales for the day exceeded 757,000 shares. The erratic movement of Manhattan was an unsettling factor in the market. The short interest in the stock continued in manifest distress and covered heavily at rising prices.

short interests in this and other tocks is believed to have been largely liminated during the early buying, thus stocks is believed to have been largely eliminated during the early buying, thus withdrawing an important sustaining factor, and the stock fell accordingly toward its normal level. The same condition of affairs was present in the case of other stocks, and the first decline uncovered stop orders, which, of course, accelerated the declines. There was no news of the general situation to account for the decline, all factors continuing favorable. London buying as well as selling stocks, the price of sterling exchange registering a still further decline, and crop news all continuing favorable. The early advance earried many stocks up over 2 points, notatively Burlington, Lackawanna, Western Julion and New Jersey Central. A large number of other active shares showed tains of over a point. Paine, Murphy & Co.'s Stock Letter. Atlanta, August 9.—In the first two hours of business today transactions in stocks reached enormous proportions, amounting ### to an aggregate as large as on many full days before the summer upward move-

days before the summer upward movement set in.

There was a great variety to dealings, and the strength was so general it would be foolish to mention any special stocks. There was an extensive covering of stocks, and liquidation took place on a large scale, while the outside buying demand was carrying prices up. The advances in principal stocks ranged from 1 to 3 per cent.

In the afternoon the effect of profit taking sales and an elimination of bear interest became evident and prices ran down rapidly, the decline uncovering many stop orders.

rapidly, the decline uncovering many stop orders.

Manhattan suffered a collapse of 4 per cent from the highest and Tobacco over 2 per cent.

Near the close the traders used their best efforts to intensify reaction and the market closed weak under pressure.

Total sales today 753,713 shares.

The Post's Financial Cable

New York, August 9.—The Evening Post's London financial telegram: The settlement in mines shows a big bull account. Contangoes on mining shares was as high as 10 per cent. There was a setback in prices consequently. Americans were in good demand. They were bought here largely this morning, but relapsed on a little selling on account of New York, finally closing arm at the best. The expected settlement tomorrow may show shortness of stock in rlaces. The decline in consols is due to the fears of exports of gold to the United States and dearer money, fears which perpaps are premature. The rise in Paris exchange on London, the first decided recovery in several months, was partly connected with today's strength in London discounts, but is said to come more immediately from the recent heavy purchases of Kaffirs for Paris on the London market. The Paris market was firm with buying of Kaffirs. The Berlin market was firm, with buying of Americans and Kaffirs, The Post's Financial Cable

The Silver Market. New York, August 9.—The price of bar silver in London broke today to 25%d and the New York quotations went to 55%c for bars and 42%c for Mexican deliars in sympathy. The opening was 56% for bars and 43% for Mexican deliars.

The Treasury Statement. Washington, August 9.—Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balances $228,881,762; gold reserve $140,588,457.

Paine, Murphy & Co.'s Grain Letter.

Atlanta, August 9.—Liverpool did not fully respond to the break here Saturday, closing only ¼ to %d lower than Saturday's close, while Parls was quoted higher, still the Chicago market did not show much improvement until the last hour, when an advance of about 1½c was recorded from low point of the day. The increased receipts—1,142,000 bushels at primary points—tended to create rather a bearish feeling early, and had the general news been favorable to bears there would undoubtedly have been some decline, but advices from the northwest and the strength displayed in northwest markets were bullish considerations, and when selling had exhausted itself and market showed a firm tendency, shorts began buying with St. Louis parties leaders. The St. Louis market also turned very strong at the same time, advancing about 2c per bushel. Advices from abroad were Paine, Murphy & Co.'s Grain Letter.

and market snowed a lith the late of the same began buying with St. Louis parties leaders. The St. Louis market also turned very strong at the same time, advancing about 2c per bushel. Advices from abroad were of a very builds nature mainly in the way of crop damage. The world's wheat shipments at 5,020,000 bushels were about the same as the week previous, when they aggregated 5,103,000 bushels. America, however, furnished 3,388,000 bushels of this amount, while shipments from Russla were 1,088,000 bushels less than the previous week—rather a strong point and somewhat confirming damage reports in that country, as the decrease is considered due to crop prospects. The amount on ocean passage increased 160,000, which, however, was offset by a decrease in the English visible of 1,267,000 bushels. The American visible decreased 167,000. New York reports fifty loads sold for shipment to the continent. The market closed firm at about top price for the day.

Corn opened weak, but gained strength and advanced about %c over Saturday's close on good professional buying, shorts participating. The Orange Judd Farmer report was considered favorable to holders, inasmuch as it indicates a crop of 1,850,000,000 bushels, or considerably less than former estimates. There was also a report from southern Kansas claiming recent rains were too late to do much good. Provisions have been quiet and a trifle easier, opening figures being at an advance, owing to a higher market at the yards, but offerings were rather heavy with limited demand.

The Live Stock Market.

Chicago, August 9.—Trade in cattle was fairly active with a good demand from the start for fat cattle at firm to be higher, but the commoner lots of half fat cattle sold here slowly a steady prices. Sales were on a basis of $3.65@.25 for the poorest dressed beef steers to $4.90@5.20 for choice to extra cattle with good beeves selling freely around $4.70@4.85. Exporters are buying cattle more freely than a fortnight ago, their selections being made largely at $4.60@4.65. Butchers' and canners' stuff sold very well today at last week's prices, and calves remained steady. Texas and western range cattle showed no change. Native beef steers sold largely today at $3.40@3.50. Trade in hogs was good and the supply well taken. Prices were 5c higher, sales ranging at $3.50@3.87½ for the poorest to the best hogs. The bulk of the hogs crossed the scales at $3.70@3.85, light selling the highest and medium weights the next best. Shippers continue good buyers. Cholera pigs from Iowa, Missouri and Minnesota made their appearance in considerable numbers and sold badly.

The sheep trade was slow at a drop of about 10e in prices with sales at $2.26@4, western range flocks selling at $3.40@3.75. Westerns and—feeders sold at $3.40@3.75. Receipts—Cattle 17,500; hogs $1,000; sheep 19,000. The Live Stock Market.

Reports from the Northwest Not So Rose Colored as They Have Been.

FAIR CASH BUSINESS DONE

Corn Advanced 1-4c-Oats Were Heavy and Lost 1-8c-Provisions Were Dull and Keatureless.

Chicago, August 9 .- Both bears and bulls had a turn in the wheat market today and the bulls came out on top. The reap-pearance of the crowd known as the "July clique" on the long side was the principal feature of the day. September wheat gainpearance of the crowd known as the "July clique" on the long side was the principal feature of the day. September wheat gained 14401%c. Corn received some help, too, and advanced &c. Oats were heavy and lost &c. Provisions were dull and featureless. Pork declined 7½c and ribs fc. Lard closed unchanged.

Wheat opened firm today 40%c higher than it closed Saturday, notwithstanding %d decline at Liverpool to begin with. Parls was higher, however, and mail advices from Europe were exceptionally bullish. Reports from the northwest were not so rose colored as they had been and the general news of the day favored buying rather than selling. The visible decreased 154,000 bushels, notwithstanding the heavy receipts of last week at the primary markets. In connection with the visible supply statement, the fact of Kansas City having increased stocks only 26,000 bushels, notwithstanding the every heavy receipts at both places last week, was a subject of general remark. A fair cash business was done—50,000 bushels, here and 50 boat loads at the seaboard. Cheago receipts were 198 cars and the out inspection was 307,000. The amount on ocean nassage increased 109,000 bushels. The world halpments to Europe last week were 5,020,000 bushels, against 5,103,000 bushels the week before and 4,811,000 bushels. The closing cables reported Liverpool only %d lower than Saturday's final quotations. Parls 10 centimes higher for nearer and 80 centimes lower for later deliveries. It was generally supposed, however, that the quotation for the November-February term at Parls Saturday was quoted in error 1 franc too high, and that instead of 80 centimes decline the price talled for a short time around the opening began once more to assert itself. The news of the day was all in before the price started on its second advance, and as the bears meantime had parted with a good deal of wheat, the price of September to 71%c on advices from the seaboard that the foreigners were reselling cargoes there. Outside markets were strong and the buils took hold wheat showed so much recuperative strength. Encouraged by the latter circumstance, it recovered a slight loss made in the forenoon and closed with a gain for the day of ¼c per bushel. Receipts were heavy, but the inspection returns included Sunday work on the three principal corn receiving railroads. The number inspected into store was 1,403 cars, and the out-inspection 465,600 bushels. The visible increased $43,000 bushels and now amounts to 11,511,000 bushels, against 12,188,000 bushels a year ago. About 11 o'clock the amount increased on ocean passage 1,200,500. Exports from Atlantic ports were 196,346 bushels. September opened unchanged to a shade lower at $254,000 auch and $254,000 corn, at $255,000 corn, and at $255,000 corn, at $255,

Trading in provisions was on a restricted scale. A run of hogs was 31,000 and prices were 5c higher. The packers sold moderately on the opening advances and established a slight reaction in pork and ribs. Lard held steady. September pork opened 2½c higher at $7.80c. 7.85, sold off to $7.65, reacting to $7.70. September lard opened 2½c lower at $4.27½, sold off to $4.25, closing with buyers at that price. September ribs opened 5c higher at $4.80, declined to $4.67½ (34.70, closing at $4.70.

The New York Wheat Market. The New York Wheat Market.

New York, August 9.—The wheat bulls were favored by strong Paris cables, a big decrease in Chicago stock, rumored export business and wet weather in the northwest. They ran September up nearly a cent a bushel to 83%c, but lost their grip about midday under general selling to take profits and reports that the San Francisco market was lower. A quick drop to $2%c for September was followed at 1 o'clock by a slight reaction to $3c.

o'clock by a slight reaction to $3c.

GEORGIA. FULTON COUNTY—Whereas, on December 31, 1895, the Park Avenue Land and Improvement Company executed to the Capital City bank, of Atlanta, Ga., a mortgage on the land hereinafter described, to secure the payment of a note for $30,000 principal, due three years after date, with interest, which interest was represented by six other notes for $900 each, due respectively in 6, 12, 18, 24, 30 and 37 months after date, all payable to the order of said Capital City bank in gold coin. In said mortgage said mortgager covenanted that, on default in the payment of any of said interest notes as they became due, the whole indebtedness should become due, at the option of said mortgage. And whereas, one of said interest notes, due 18 months after date, amounting to $960, 18 past due and unpaid; and whereas, it was contracted in said mortgage amongst other things, that in case of default in the payment of any of said interest notes when the same became due said mortgage was authorized to advertise and sell said property to the highest bidder for cash for the payment of said debt, interest to date of saie, together with all disbursements, costs and charges for advertising, and commissions for selling. Any overplus after such payment to be paid over to the mortgagor. Time being of the essence of the whole contract.

Now, said mortgage on said default exercises its option and treats the whole of said indebtedness as due, and now, in accordance with the power contained in said mortgage, the undersigned will. On the first Tuesday in September, 1897, within the legal hours of saie, sell at public outcry, before the courthouse door in said county, to the highest bidder for cash, the land described in said mortgage provided. Reference is hereby made to said mortgage.

The legal hours of saie, sell at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash, the land described in said mortgage of said indevented as follows:

JUDGE FITE PRESIDES AT DEKALB COURT

There This Week.

THE GRAND JURY ORGANIZED

A Strong Charge Delivered to That Body by the Judge.

GRAND JURY WILL FIND MANY TRUE BILLS

Court Will Proceed Through the Week and Will Dispose of Much Business.

The fall term of the DeKalb county suerior court convened yesterday morning Judge A. W. Fite, of Cartersville, judge of the Cherokee circuit, presided. Judge Fite will preside for the week over disqualified business of Judge Candler's and any other business that comes during the week.

The panel of jurors were chosen for the

The panel of jurors were chosen for the week and the others excused until next Monday morning. The grand jury was organized and delivered a forceful charge from Judge Fite. He did not go into any of the interests of the county.

He told them to look into the officials of the county and see that the different departments had been kept orderly and conduced to the best advantage of the county. duced to the best advantage of the county He acknowledged the failure of the chain-gang in working the public roads and said that he believed that method cost the county as much as hired labor. On the school recommend the discharge of any teacher

Regarding the criminal law he was particular in his charge. Blind tigers re-ceived a skinning and he was confident that they could find some if they would investigate closely. Concealed weapons, gambling, lewd houses, all came in for their share of notice and he charged the jury to be particular in regard to these things and if they could not get the facts to indict somebody for perjury and then they would be told the truth.

Grand Jury at Work.

Many true bills will be found by the grand jury and they will have a long session. The reports of the county officials will show the county to be in a better condition than for many years previous. Treasurer Johnson said that the county was in the best of shape financially. They needed no money and had plenty to pay all accounts to carry on this term of the court and meet all the claims that may be presented against it.
Ordinary Ragsdale will show that since the abolishment of the commissioners the county has been improved in many ways. New roads have been opened and old ones repaired. He will say that he has on hand sufficient to build a handsome court-house as soon as the site is decided upon. This amount is $50,000. The tax assessor and the tax collector will make good show-

After the charge of the grand jury the setting of cases was commenced and it appeared that an epidemic had struck the members of the bar. A great number of them were sick and their cases were con-tinued. The remainder of the morning was consumed in a case involving $100. In the afternoon a damage suit against the Seaboard Air-Line for several thous-

the Seaboard Air-Line for several thousand dollars was taken up.
Judge Fite dismissed the court at 11 o'clock for dinner. The jury retired and it was some minutes before the mistake of the court was discovered and the jury was called back and the hearing of the case continued until 12 o'clock.

WILL REDUCE THE COUNCIL.

Rumor Says Councilman Camp Will Try To Do This.

A report was circulated in the city yesterday afternoon to the effect that at the next meeting of the general council an 'ordinance would be introduced by Councilman Camp looking toward the reduction in numbers of the city council. According to the report, he proposes to so reconstruct the ordinance which per-tains to the council as to have only one representative from each ward. These councilmen would be paid a salary of $160 per month each, and would hold daily sessions between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. It was also rumored that an ordinance would be introduced to abolish all boards which are under the direction of the council, such as the police commissioners, the board of health and the street committee, and it was impossible to have him ratify or deny the rumo but. Acting Mayor Pro Tem. Hirsch, whe he heard of the report, indulged in a heart laugh, and Alderman Woodward, who will present at the time, expressed the opinion that such an ordinance would never adopted by the council. If the measure introduced Councilman Camp will fit strong opposition to it.

CITY OFFICIALS OFF FOR NORFOLK

He Is Filling Judge Candler's Place Mayor Collier and Street Committee Go To Inspect Street Paving.

WILL VISIT VIRGINIA'S RESORTS

Old Point Comfort, Newport News, Virginia Beach and Other Places.

PARTY WILL RETURN THURSDAY OR FRIDAY

During the Absence of the Mayor and Mayor Pro Tem. Alderman Hirsch Will Act as Mayor.

A jolly party of city officials and coun cilmen left at noon via the Seaboard Air-Line vestibuled train yesterday for Nor-folk, Va., where they will spend several days inspecting the street pavements of that city incidentally and basking in the sun and surf of Virginia Beach principally. The party is headed by Mayor Collie and the happy officials left in a splendid humor and with pleasant anticipations of a delightful trip. Part of the party will return Thursday, but a few will probably remain over until Friday or Saturday.

The officials go to Norfolk to inspect the several kinds of paving in use in that city. The city has recently adopted a new kind of spaweed pavement and other released. other splendid paying material tested by the city of Norfolk with a view of adopt-ing a permanent material for use in that An invitation was received from Norfolk for the Atlanta council street committee to visit that city, and the trip was arranged for this week. There are in the party the foll wing officials: Mayor Charles A. Collier, Mayor Pro Tem. Alderman W. R. Dimmock, Alschool commissioner of the county | ficials: derman I. S. Mitchell, chairman of derman I. S. Mitchell, chairman of the street committee, and Councilmen J. A. Hutchison, M. P. Camp, H. L. Culberson, George P. Howard, L. P. Stephens and W. E. Aslamson, of the street committee; City Engineer R. M. Clayton; nd Commissioner of Public Works D. G. Wylle and Charles Daniel, of The Constitution. Upon arrival in Norfolk early this morning the visitors will be not by several prominent officials and citizens of that city and escorted to their botel. After breakfast today the party will be shown about the city in charge of the Nerfolk'ans and this afternoon the Allantans will probably run over to /irginia Beach, Virginia's fashionable resort.

While away the party will visit Old Point Comfort, Newport News, Pettsmouth and other cities and resorts of Virginia. The trip will be a pleasant one for the Atlantans and they will return heme with many big stories of conquests on Virginia's fishing banks and with tales of hairbreadth fishing banks and with tales of hairbreadth scapes in the Atlantic's raging surf.

Two members of the party, Captain Wylie and Councilman Camp, took along their bathing suits because of the inability to secure suits at any resort large enough for them. It is the intention of the fat men of the party to ascertain, while away, their correct joint weight together, if scales large enough can be found. Mayor Coilier and Councilmen Culberson and Adamson make up the lean party, and Councilman Howard will be classed as the middleweight. Nearly all of the party are experts in the surf and they will test

Virginia's breakers to their entire satisfaction while away.

The visitors will be well cared for by the Seaboard and they will return via that route also.

During the absence of Mayor Collier and Mayor Pro Tem, Dimmock, Alderman Hirsch will act as mayor. He is provisional mayor pro tem., and during the absence of the mayor and mayor pro tem. it is his duty to assume the reins of government and hold things in check until ne of the officials mentioned returns. Mr. Hirsch has had considerable expe ence in the mayor's chair, he having been mayor pro tem, under Mayor King, and he will fill the position gracefully this week. Things will be dull at the city hall during the absence of the offi-

"Alaska"

Is the suggestive name of the best Refrigerator ever made. It has all the conveniences and good qualities of the most scientifically constructed ones without any of their faults or deficiencies. The "Alaska" saves the consumption of ice, is easy to keep fresh and clean and does everything that the most exacting housewife expects of a Refrigerator. Buy an "Alaska."
